

Hello all,

We're excited to announce TWO full-time tenure-track positions in our Department of Psychology and Graduate School Psychology Educational Specialist Program at Millersville University.

Please share this job posting and summary of the position with interested colleagues or students: <https://jobs.millersville.edu/postings/8932>

As the search committee chair and Program Coordinator, I am happy to answer any additional questions about the positions or our university.

Best,

Lauren Kaiser, Ph.D., NCSP

MILLERSVILLE UNIVERSITY
ASSISTANT PROFESSOR
PSYCHOLOGY DEPARTMENT
(TWO SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGY POSITIONS)

The Psychology Department of Millersville (PA) University invites applications for two full-time, tenure-track positions with specialization in school psychology beginning August 2022. Teaching responsibilities include graduate courses such as psychological assessment, applied behavior analysis, classroom and school-wide behavioral interventions, practicum and internship, and undergraduate courses such as general psychology, developmental psychology, applied behavior analysis, statistics and research design, and tests and measurement. Requires evidence of a strong commitment to excellence in teaching, a commitment to serve diverse populations, and social justice advocacy. Requires a Master's degree plus ABD in School Psychology from a NASP or APA approved doctoral program and at least two years' experience as a school psychologist conducting assessments and interventions. Preference will be given to applicants who have earned Ph.D. Highly regarded for its instructional and quality and strong commitment to diversity, MU is a learner-focused institution located in historic Lancaster County, known for its excellent schools and vibrant arts community, and close to Baltimore, Philadelphia, Washington, and NYC. MU enrolls about 8,000 undergraduate and graduate students. We seek individuals who embrace our public mission and value exploration, professionalism, integrity and compassion. The Psychology Department offers an undergraduate program in psychology and graduate programs in clinical psychology, school psychology, and school counseling. For additional information, contact Dr. Lauren Kaiser, Search Chair at 717-871-7274 or Lauren.Kaiser@millersville.edu. For complete position description, lists of qualifications, and to apply go to <https://jobs.millersville.edu> and create a faculty application. Full consideration given to applications received by November 15, 2021. An EO/AA/ADA Employer.
